Reviewer General Comments and Suggestions (mandatory written feedback):

The study seems interesting, but in the abstract too little is said about the methodology applied, and thus it is difficult to make a correct evaluation. References are missing. The abstract is unbalanced; in proportion, the first two parts could have been condensed in one paragraph only, while last one should have been the double. The text is not so fluent to read. The coherence with the conference theme is not well addressed in the text.

Reviewer General Comments and Suggestions (mandatory written feedback): Very interesting proposal. It would be helpful to clarify your research method, what metrics will be examined? What variables might be controlled such a specific building project scale or typology? With some further clarity, this paper would lead to a very insightful study.
